

Keil A. Albert

1450 Koll Circle Suite 114 • San Jose, California 95112 • (408) 453-2541 x14

RESUMÉ

LICENSES

Professional Geologist (No. 7273), California

PRINCIPAL ASSIGNMENTS

- Comprehensive hydrogeologic research projects
- Regional ground-water management studies
- Geologic mapping projects
- Interpretive analysis of electrotelluric, resistivity, magnetic, radiometric, and VLF/electromagnetic geophysical data
- Production well design and technical specifications
- Aerial photography analysis and interpretation
- Electrical well log interpretation
- Geophysical reconnaissance studies

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Senior Geologist
Geoconsultants, Inc. San Jose, California
1994 to Present

Senior Geology Teaching Assistant
Sonoma State University Rohnert Park, California
1993-1994

EDUCATION

B.S., Geology 1995, Sonoma State University, Rohnert Park, California

AFFILIATIONS

California Groundwater Association
Geological Society of America
Groundwater Resources Association
National Ground Water Association (Technical Division)
Society for Sedimentary Geology (SEPM)
Association of Engineering Geologists
Northern California Geological Society

PUBLICATIONS

Electrotelluric sounding method in groundwater investigations
Abstracts of Program for the Association of Engineering Geologists Annual Meeting, 2000,
San Jose, California

References available upon request.